

EVALUATION CRITERIA FOR LEADING PBSP-STRUCTURES

Al Pesso, Diane Boyden Pessa, Han Sarolea, Tjeerd Jongsma, 1983

- |     |   |   |   |   |   |   |
|-----|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1.  | Is the therapist able to create a possibility sphere to work in?  | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 2.  | Does the therapist identify highest energy, help the client utilize highest energy?   | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 3.  | Does the therapist help the client find resolution or full expression of highest energy in action and interaction on a bodily level and does the structure result in satisfaction of an essential need? | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 4.  | Does the therapist follow the client without giving away essential leadership or taking over the process?   | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 5.  | Does the therapist lead the structure in a way that clarifies a historical issue and/or a present issue on an experiential as well as on intellectual level?  | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 6.  | Has the therapist sufficient attention for pre-structure-stuff, such as motivation, contract, relationship and transference?  | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 7.  | Does the therapist use clear and appropriate role-definitions (verbalization)?  | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 8.  | Does the therapist understand and implement basic theory and basic techniques of PBSP?  | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 9.  | Is the therapist capable to form and verbalize basic hypotheses in relation to the client s/he is working with, concerning diagnoses as well as processes.  | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 10. | Is the therapist comfortable with unexpected strong emotional expressions?  | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 11. | Is the therapist able to take group leadership-position in a quiet and clear way?   | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 12. | Does the therapist pay attention to good accommodation?   | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 13. | How good is the therapist in listening and observing the body and utilizing this observation?   | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 14. | How clear and well-timed are the interventions and how do they fit in with what is happening?   | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 15. | Does the therapist not permit direct or indirect negative reconstructions?  | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 16. | Is there basic hope and trust in the process of the client and does it show up in the work?   | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 17. | Does it appear from this evaluation that the therapist distinguishes her/himself by a specialty as far as the therapeutic message of PBSP is concerned, in comparison with other therapeutic messages?  | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |